

Interim Project Support Officer

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in this role at Turn2us.

By taking your next step with us, you'd be joining an organisation where the work really matters. It matters to the parent who worries about keeping their children warm this winter. It matters to the colleague who falls ill and can no longer work. It matters to those of us who lie awake worrying about mounting bills. It matters to us because none of us should have to face these challenges alone.

We're looking forward to hearing from people who are deeply committed to our vision: a future where everyone in the UK has financial security so they can thrive. We should have enough money to cover the basics, enjoy our lives and plan for the future, and we believe this is a basic right everyone should have, regardless of age, race, whether someone is gay, straight, trans, able-bodied, Disabled, married or single.

You'd be joining a team who are determined to change the system that affects so many of us. I'm inspired every day by their depth of knowledge and curiosity, their highly competent humility, and their commitment to improving people's lives. From our grants team, who work relentlessly to help people thrive, to those who create and manage our innovative online tools; our passionate team is determined to create lasting, tangible impact.

One good example of this is our Benefits Calculator. In 2023/2024, over 2.5 million calculations were completed using the tool. We know that 60% of those users (1.6 million) found new benefits they could apply for. Similarly, our new PIP Helper tool, built with people who have experience of claiming Personal Independence Payment (PIP), is helping people navigate a system described as "complex" and "exhausting".

We know that we can't do any of this alone. For our work to make the biggest possible difference, it must be shaped by the voices and insights of people with recent or current experience of financial insecurity – our co-production partners. Their expertise is the golden thread running through all our work: they know the system, and they know what needs to be done to change it. And this collaboration doesn't just happen on an individual level. We build partnerships with trusted, community organisations – deepening our impact and our understanding of what people need to thrive.

We know, too, that this expert, collaborative work is built on a foundation of a strong culture. At Turn2us we strive to create an environment where colleagues look forward to coming to work and feel truly valued for what they do. We should feel encouraged to try new things without fear of failure, but with a commitment to learn from mistakes. We should all be working with a sense of urgency to co-create change, with an understanding that we need to look after ourselves and each other.

Central to this, is creating a diverse and inclusive working environment. We know that Turn2us benefits hugely from colleagues with a range of backgrounds, who enrich our work with valuable, different perspectives and experiences. To nurture this and create an environment where everyone feels safe and seen, we take equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB) very seriously. It's embedded in our organisational values and in our guiding principles, owned individually and collectively at all levels of the charity.

To encourage this diversity of thought and experience, we're open to people who would bring transferable skills to this role. Maybe you haven't walked a 'traditional' career path, but you've built the skills to do this role, and do it well. If you can demonstrate a clear commitment to our values and ethos, and a deep personal commitment to our vision, we'd love to hear from you.

Thomas Lawson,
Chief Executive, Turn2us
Chair, Elizabeth Finn Homes

From your hiring manager

So people can build financial sustainability and thrive, Turn2us gives people the information and support they need in the face of life-changing events, and collaborates to tackle the causes and symptoms of financial insecurity.

Unexpected illness, job loss or relationship breakdown can turn any of our lives upside down, leading to loss of income, increased costs, loss of housing, and financial crisis for any of us and our families. Around 14.4 million people live in poverty in the UK including, shamefully, 4.5 million children.

We are here to end the crippling impact of financial shocks. Turn2us offers support by making grants to people and families, highlighting ways to reduce essential costs, and sharing information so people can increase their income through welfare benefits, other charities' grants and other support. No one in the UK should live in poverty.

The Interim Project Support Officer role provides the opportunity to join an inspirational and focused team that aims to reduce financial insecurity by offering high-quality information and support. As Interim Project Support Officer you will assist the Information Programmes team with various projects so we can achieve more impact for people facing financial hardship. You'll work hand in hand with your colleagues in Information Programmes to drive the organisation into the future and to tackle financial insecurity.

We are more interested in your potential than we are in a perfect career or education. We want to recruit so we can build a strong, high-performing team full of complementary experiences and strengths, not a group of people with the same perspectives.

This pack provides information about our work, structure and our strategic plans for the future. You will also find specific details for this role and information on how to apply.

We would love to hear from you.

Donisha Thompson,
Interim Head of Information Programmes

Financial security goes beyond survival

At Turn2us, we see every day how the right support at the right time can transform lives. It can mean having enough money to put food on the table and pay the bills, and the ability to thrive, not just survive. We all need financial security.

Financial security involves having enough money to comfortably cover your monthly expenses, save for your future and, most crucially, recover from financial shocks.

We want to see a society where everyone has the right to financial security. Our ambition to bring about this change forms the backbone of our strategy.

But it's not enough for Turn2us to demand change from a society and economic system at the root of so much financial insecurity for so many of us. We also need to model the change we and many other partners know is needed.

Our previous strategy, which focused on the financial shocks caused by life-changing events, enabled us to build strong foundations for our evolving ambition. We strengthened our safeguarding and sharpened our focus on equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB).

We increased the reach and outcomes of our products and services by co-producing them with people with in-depth experience of the problems we were trying to address.

Over the last three years we have listened to and worked alongside individuals and families who have steered us towards an emphasis on financial security – empowering people to thrive, not just survive.

The growing scale of suffering compels us to increase our focus on challenging an outdated, unfair economic system.

Whilst overhauling the current system will not be straightforward, there is a growing desire across civil society, the commercial sector, and parts of the state to work together to change the status quo so that more people can work together to overcome financial shocks and rebuild the strength and resilience of their communities.

We will join forces with a wide range of partners, facilitating (with others) a broad coalition for change.

Over the next five years we will take steps towards that goal of designing a fairer economy, working both with UK-wide decision-makers and the people and families at the centre of communities driving change.

At Turn2us, we're well-placed to broaden our reach, deepen our impact and help drive the necessary change.

Join us in building a better future for us all.

About Turn2us

Our vision

Everyone in the UK has financial security so that they can thrive.

Our purpose

We offer support to those of us facing financial shocks and together we challenge the systems and perceptions that cause financial insecurity.

Our values

Financial security for all

It's not acceptable to us that we live in an unjust society where a financial shock becoming a financial crisis is more likely for those already facing barriers to thriving.

Everyone should have access to appropriate rights, resources and support. We actively tackle prejudice and barriers to access.

We face into the causes of financial inequality, challenging the status quo, ourselves and others in doing so.

We believe this is urgent. We will not stand by as another generation grows up without adequate money and the resources to thrive.

Listen, learn and improve

To be effective, we need to deeply understand people's experiences, the financial challenges they face, what's important to them and how best we, and others, can provide support through a financial crisis or shock.

We are on a constant cycle of listening, learning and looking to improve. This gives us confidence in our direction. Listening attentively to people's lived experiences. Learning from all we hear and all we experience. Looking to improve how we support, respond and progress.

We hold ourselves to account and want to be held to account by those we work with and serve. Each and every one of us has our own worth and value. And it is in the spirit of humility and equality that we hear, learn and improve the most.

Together we succeed

We are successful when we collaborate, co-create, partner and work together.

Financial hardship can happen to anyone and for many reasons. Everyone's needs and situation are unique. We make no assumptions, no judgements.

Financial exclusion can be complex and complicated so we must work together with those we serve as well as other partners.

Impatient

We can't rest until financial security is achieved for all. To create change so that people can thrive we need to be proactive, take initiative, create momentum and drive forward with energy, determination and conviction. This sense of urgency is at the heart of our culture and all we do.

How we work

Our three strategic priorities:

Offer high quality information and support. We will be led by people experiencing financial insecurity, the communities we work with and our partners, and our improvement focused evaluation, to develop integrated services people need.

Strengthen communities through place-based programmes. We will develop existing programmes and start new ones, designed by and rooted in communities across the UK. Led by local organisations and people with experience of financial hardship, we will address financial insecurity and economic injustice together.

Help build a fair economy through systems change. Building on our data, insight and learning, we will campaign to build an economy that includes everyone and that we can all contribute to. We will work in partnership to create new systems that build financial security for all.

Our three guiding principles:

Championing equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB). We know black, Asian and minoritised ethnic communities, disabled people, women and those from LGBTQIA+ communities, are more likely to experience financial hardship. Being inclusive and creating belonging will be central to the way we run our own organisation, as well as the way in which we design and offer our services.

Upholding human rights. No one should have to choose between heating their home or feeding their children. Our grantmaking, for example, addresses these wrongs and upholds people's rights.

Working for a fair journey to net zero economy. We will explore ways to support a transition to net zero in 2050 that protects people's employment and shares the benefits of a healthier, greener economy.

Our three organisational foundations:

Our culture. We will model the change we want to see across the UK. Our work will be rooted in partnership, respect, humility and mutual support.

Our finances. We will make the best possible use of our assets and investments and ensure they are on a thoroughly ethical footing. We will improve the returns from our care home business, Elizabeth Finn Homes.

Our brand. How we present ourselves and how we are experienced by everyone we meet is crucial for the delivery of this strategy. Our name – Turn2us – is both an invitation to people who need support, and a challenge to those in power, to listen to those voices of experience.

What we do

Turn2us is a national charity offering practical help to people facing financial insecurity. In 2023:

Over 2.7 million people completed a Turn2us benefits calculation.

60% of Turn2us Benefits Calculator users found new benefits to apply for.

Turn2us made grants worth over a total of £3.1 million for almost 3,500 people in financial need.

Over 750,000 searches were completed using the Turn2us Grants Search tool.

Our Helpline received over 92,724 calls from people needing support to access our services and those of others.

The cost of financial insecurity

Half the people who came to Turn2us for support (according to a survey of more than 2,000 Turn2us service users, carried out between 15 June and 20 July 2022), reported being left with nothing to live on each week after paying housing, council tax and utility bills.

Nationally, nearly a quarter of people (24%) run out of money for essentials either most months or most days, according to a survey in February 2023 by Survation, on behalf of the Together Through This Crisis Coalition ↗, of which Turn2us is a member.

Since August 2021, the Consumer Price Index inflation rate has soared from 0.7% to 10.1% in January 2023, with gas prices rising by 129% in the year to January 2023. See the Office of National Statistics data on inflation. ↗

Those most likely to report feeling worried about these rising costs are women (81% compared with 73% of men); those aged 30 to 49 years (82%); people with disabilities (82% compared with 75% of non disabled people) and those who have children under the age of five (90% compared with 76% of non-parents). See the Office of National Statistics to data on the cost of living. ↗

In 2022, there were an estimated 3.26 million households in fuel poverty in England, which is projected to continue to rise to over 3.5 million in 2023. See the governments statistics on Fuel Poverty.

The demand for credit has risen sharply as people try to bridge the gap between their incomes and their needs. As a result, people in the UK owed £1,832.8 billion in personal debt at the end of December 2022, a figure up by £72.3 billion from the end of the previous year. See The Money Charity on their 2023 statistics. ↗

Poverty rates for minoritised ethnic groups have been consistently higher than for white ethnic groups over the past 25 years. Since 2000/2001, poverty rates amongst black people have remained around 40%. This is twice as high as the poverty rate for the white ethnic group which has been around 20% since 2003/04. Matthew's story

“We try and cut back where we can over the school holidays because we aren't able to afford to go anywhere. Sometimes it feels like we are failing our children because we can't afford to take them on days out when on paper we have 'good jobs'.”

Matthew,
Turn2us service user

Matthew, Turn2us service user.

We are a single income household, my wife is training to be a nurse and I am a recently qualified teacher, we have two children. Our rent has increased, gas and electric has gone through the roof, fuel costs for us to travel to work keep going up.

I never thought we'd be in this position but I got in touch with a Turn2us adviser who gave me the confidence to apply for more universal credit and showed me how to use the benefits calculator – and they also offered an understanding ear.

I think more people should speak up about their experience, so many people must feel alone just like we did. This is why I have been helping Turn2us with media interviews and telling our story in different ways, for example telling our family story as a graphic in The Big Issue.

Finding different platforms to speak about being in work and still struggling helps get the message across that anyone can struggle, it's not our fault, but there is help out there.
